The Palladium

Northville High School, Northville, Michigan

The faces of N.H.S. are the faces of discovery to a world demanding excellence. The faces of our students show the discovery of excellence in the athletics, intellectual and social pursuits and excellence of direction, purpose and strength. These are the faces of enthusiasm, school spirit, determination, quality, and success.

Memories of NHS are memories of the excitement of events, the thrill of achievement and success, the laughter of familiar faces, but....

NHS is a managerie of of changing faces not only the changes of its students, but with itself; and these too will be the memories of NHS.

Ronald Horwath

Dedication

Our busy assistant principal who has found the secrets of success with his first year on the job. He firmly enforces the rules of NHS and he's a friend with the students in his understanding manner.

As if his job in the office didn't keep him busy enough, Mr. Horwath inherited the sponsorship of Student Council. Since he came to Northville in 1960, Mr. Horwath has taught general mathematics, algebra I, and algebra II and coached football, basketball and baseball, but last year he gave up his teaching and coaching positions to fill the need for an assistant principal.

Mr. Horwath gave some experienced advice for any student who wants to succeed: "Go into an area that you really like... Learn to work with people... Be willing to put in 25 hours a day, eight days a week."

Palladium Staff wishes to thank him for his guidance, and for the work he has done to make NHS a great school for learning and succeeding. We would like to express our sincerest wishes for even more success in his future.

Faculty

It is my hope that the education received in the Northville Public Schools will provide you with the foundation for a life worthwhile to yourselves and to your fellow men.

NHS Presents Homecoming 66-67

Homecoming got under way with a roaring bonfire surrounded by cheering faces. Then came those exciting days before Homecoming, reflected by creative and mischievous faces as each class prepared their own float (and those unforgettable eggs!). The anticipation of the Homecoming court elections changed to joyful faces as we chose our queen, Pat Moase. The spirit of Homecoming weekend with the game and dance was evident in the excited, happy, and contented faces of all the students.

The seniors built the best float, of course?

It happened just that way!

Blue Mist...

As "Blue Mist" marked the month of November, it also marked a time of laughter and enjoyment for those who attended. The success of the entertainment provided by Carrol Fox and The Jerry Ross Five, all contributed to a night that will be long remembered.

Congratulations are in order to the JUNIORS, who made this all possible.

NHS Presents the Harlem Diplomats.

Northville teachers braved the odds against the famous Harlem Diplomates. Although not exactly victorious it was a good game for all, colored by the hilarious antics of our talented young guests.

Student Assemblies. . .

Northville students demonstrate their school spirit at Pep Assemblies led by cheerleaders and the Pep Band.

In November our Jazz Band was fortunate enough to have as their guest the famous saxophone player, Bob Pierson. After working together with Mr. Pierson they put on an assembly which proved to be an exciting experience for all.

Clubs and Organizations

Pam Smith-Winner of Democracy Theme contest, both last year and this year.

Under the direction of Kurt Kinde, and Allison Lyke, "Ugly Duckling" has begun to take form. The two plays chosen for this year have been liked so well, that it has already been decided to perform both of them again, in years to come.

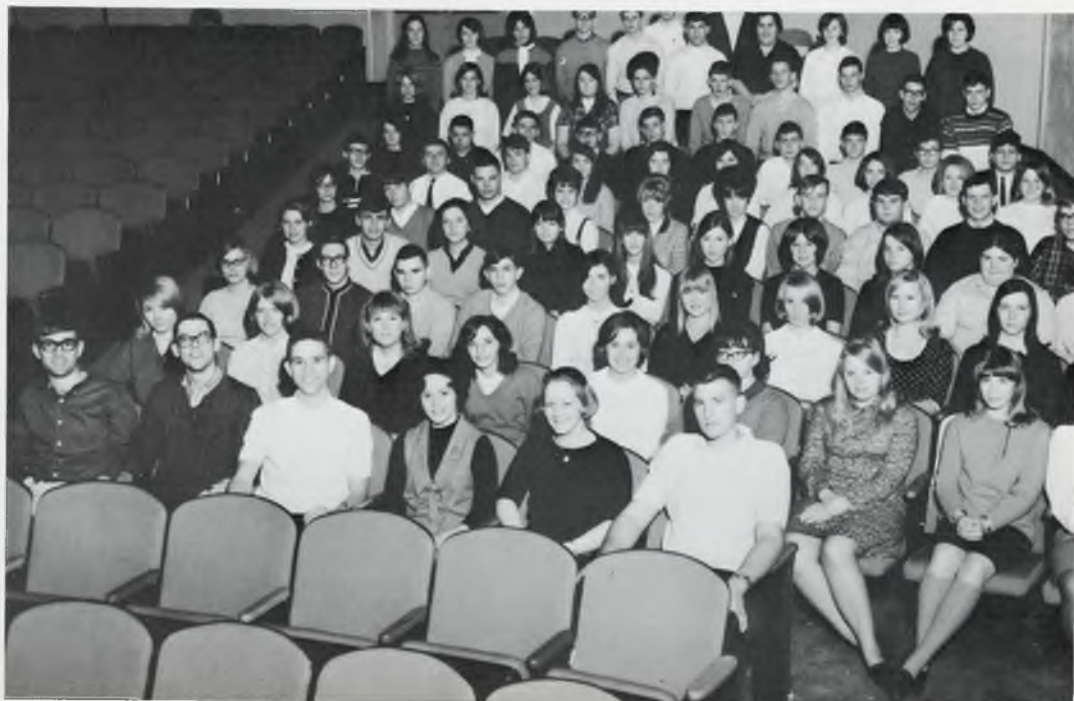

"Sorry Wrong Number", under the direction of Chris Becker, and Stacey Evans, is the story of a lady overhearing a murder plot by getting a wrong number, and it ends up that the plan was to murder her.

Forensic Club-This club is made up of those who enjoy the various aspects of theatricals. Their Christmas Party and a trip to see a stage play are their big projects of the year.

These students took part in the spring forensic contest. The contests consist of multiple readings, orations, declamations, interpretive readings, radio broadcasting, and humorous readings. Those seated in the front row were last years winners.

Glenn Deibert-The American Legion oratory winner.

“Good things come in small packages.” This familiar aphorism could be accurately used to describe this year’s FHA. Their small membership seemed to spur activity as they worked vigorously sponsoring carmel apple sales, a pajama party and a teachers tea. Their biggest project was a trip to the state convention which lucky members attended in the spring.

Faces of Cheer

Standing l-r: Marcia Lipa, Hope Hahn, Luanne Godfrey. Kneeling: Lynn Elkins, Cindy Haynes and Pat Moase.

The J.V. cheerleaders for the year 1966-1967 are l-r: Donna Bissa, Vicki Elkins, Pat Henschell, Kim McCormick, Sandy Schwedemann, Pam Witzke, and alternate Pat Bishop. The squad has never been to a camp where they could win trophies or ribbons, but they went to a clinic for one day, where schools from many different leagues taught each other new ideas and techniques.

The Varsity squad started the year when they took 2nd place at Camp All American. Throughout the year they performed at a cheerleading clinic, and for the Mothers club. They have also performed pom pom routines to various popular songs. The cheerleaders have continually shown their peppy faces all year at the games, and pep assemblies.

Dance Band

The dance band is widely known throughout the state and is much in de-
performance for the student body with a guest musician. Another of their activities is the music they annually provide at the Homecoming Dance.

Members of the dance band are active every day of the week.

Officers of student council are, l-r: D. Gido-V. Mayor, L. Elkins-Sec., C. Winkler-Mayor, B. Bogart-Treas., D. Tymensky-Health Officer, B. Slinger-Police Chief.

The purpose of this organization is to promote more effective and beneficial student activities and to raise the standards of scholarship and all student activities. The Student Council secures a greater co-operation between student and faculty and creates spirit of greater loyalty to the high school.

The Girls Athletic League has been extremely busy this year. Soccer began the season along with speedball and archery. Then it was on to volleyball, basketball, bowling, and in the spring, softball, track, tennis, and golf. Whew! But even this was not enough. Aside from sports the G.A.L. held a slumber party and sponsored several money-raising projects.

The Palladium staff of '66-'67 was kept in high gear collecting all the scattered highlights and reminiscences of the entire student body throughout the school year. Many new faces (and original expressions!) found their place in this year's yearbook. Mr. Riddell, as the new sponsor, masterfully guided the yearbook staff through lots of hard work and creative ideas. Hopefully the Palladium staff has created a true, candid album of "the way it was."

Faces of the Press

The mustanger owes its existence to the dilligent workers of the Journalism staff. As two years have passed the paper has continually increased its success along with its circulation.

Library Club

The library club is an organization dedicated to keeping the school's library in immaculate working order.

Faces of Music

NHS Marching and Concert Band

Director Mr. Williams led the band through one of its most successful marching seasons. The highlight of the season was when the majorettes twirled with fire to the background music of "Your a Grand Old Flag." Their first concert was in December, and featured the Fifth Symphony. Preparation for the next concert is well underway.

Majorettes-l-r: L. Allen, R. Bongiovanni, R. Westphall.

Alternate-S. Bongiovanni had the opportunity to perform quite a number of times throughout the year.

G.A.L. Skilled Basketball

The "67" year ended up with a 5-3 record for the varsity squad, defeating Novi, Plymouth, Bentley, and South Lyons. The team lost to Bloomfield, Redford, and Kingswood. Practice was held three times a week.

L-R: C. Smith, B. Byrd, S. Morase, M. Hay, L. Tiilikka, J. Shoner, K. LaButt, P. Moase, S. Bowen, N. Seacord, L. Sipson, L. Elkins, Sponsor-Miss Bubel.

The J.V. squad played an eight game season, and ended up with a 5-3 record also. Their first victory was over Plymouth, followed by victories over Novi, Bentley, and South Lyons. Meeting Novi again spelled out defeat. Redford Union, and Bloomfield Hills also defeated the J.V. squad.

M.U.N.

Model United Nations was led this year by the forces of Leo Cherne, President, and Mike Conley, Vice President. Mrs. Heller supplied the guidelines as sponsor. M.U.N. had an active year, including a trip to New York by the officers to see how the world organization operates. All in all, the members had a hard-working and rewarding year.

TEAM RECORD 3 wins - 5 losses

For the first time in three years, fall proved bleak for NHS sports enthusiasts. The Mustang eleven, under Coach Alex Klukach's rebuilding program, suffered through a 3-5 campaign. The team effort was hampered by injuries and the loss of valuable graduates.

The season itself could be summed up in one word, "almost." The Mustangs almost beat Plymouth, Brighton, and Clarkston, but could not come up with the big plays when they needed them most. Coach Klukach has hopes that the squad—laden heavily with sophomores and juniors—will next year succeed to a more victorious season.

AND WHAT ABOUT THOSE MOVING UP TO VARSITY?

Junior Varsity

The Colts finished undefeated this year coasting to a 4-0-1 won-lost record. Under new coaches Richard Willing and Delbert Burson, they displayed real strength and coordination which was marred only slightly by a tie with Belville. At the big game of the season with Novi, however, the Northville Junior Varsity won handily.

Harriers Face the Future

This year's Cross Country team took on a new look. They acquired a new coach, Mr. Osborn, and a few additional runners, but not enough to overcome problems.

Our Cross Country course at Cass Benton is noted as one of the toughest around and gathers equally challenging opposition from many top schools. The Harriers didn't win a contest this year but look forward to next year and the return of all their runners, including veterans Bill Harrison, Jim Peterson, and Jim Castillo.

Since then they have compiled a 11-4 record to complete their first winning season. Our matmen were lead by Marty Richardson (undefeated in season competition) and Dale Ashby. They look forward to the regionals and next year's newly added Wayne-Oakland league competition.

The Northville varsity squad finished its season in the Wayne-Oakland with a 10-4 record for second place. The most crucial game of the season came when Northville played Clarkston at home to decide the championship and lost by one point, 50-49 in a fiercely fought game. Two sparks that kept Northville's hopes alive were Jim Zayti and Jim Peterson who (together) scored over 500 pts. this year. Additional praise should be given Northville's stalwart guards and Glenn Deibert's performance, including a 71% free-throw average.

Colts Finish Second

This year's J.V. team played an excellent season, finishing with a 11-3 record in Wayne-Oakland competition.

The Colts were leady by three top players. Gregg Carr and Ralph Robinson with 15 point averages plus dependable rebounding and Jeff Taylor with a 13 point average and 80% accuracy from the free throw line.

Their strength should contribute much to next year's varsity team.

This year's second place finish in the Wayne-Oakland league can be accounted for at least in part by Jim Zayti's stellar performance on the basketball court.

The following statistics honor Jim Zayti;

- 468 points in 38 games.
- leading scorer on NHS team 66-67.
- selected to the first team in The Wayne-Oakland County League.
- Most Valuable Player on 66-67 team.
- selected as one of the top 30 Class B players in the state (sixth team) by the Free Press.

Tennis Champs See Close Finish

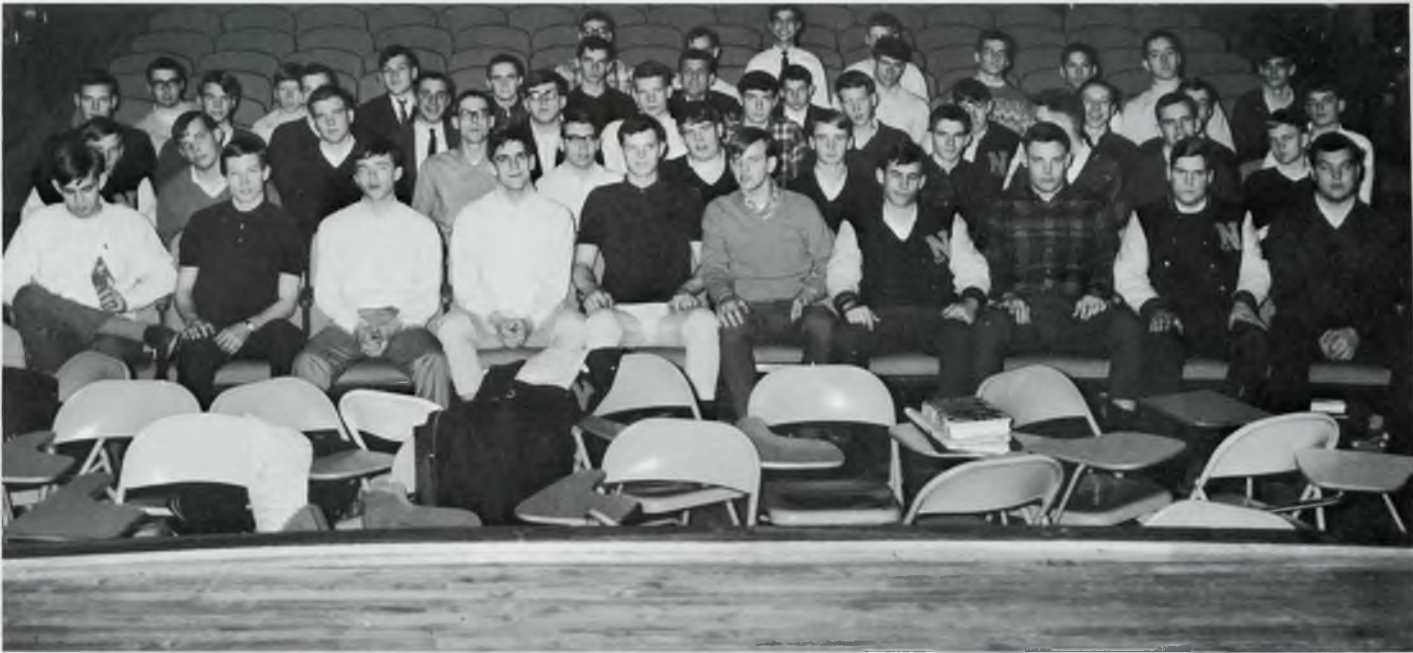

John Eberhart, Bruce Grysiewilz, Bruce Durham, Ken Boerger, Jim Long, and Randy Burnett. (Absent) George Kohs.

Our tennis team this year, Wayne-Oakland Champions, have a comparatively young team back to defend their title. With help from the Jayvee squad and consistent play Northville could repeat the crown for Mr. Norton.

Mr. Norton poses during practice for picture.

Sports Summary

This year at Northville sports have taken on a different outlook. To make up for or add to their available talent, our teams have used strategy.

In football, Mr. Klukach used speed to make up for a lack of team size. Mr. Longridge replaced height with speed. Cross-Country's coach Mr. Osborn made up for inexperience and depth by producing a harder working team.

Mr. Tounsley's wrestlers showed that strategy and hard work does produce a winner. In track Mr. Redmond asks a little extra effort from his team each time. Baseball and Tennis teams, coached by Mr. Kucher and Mr. Norton keep producing a high quality of competitors by getting solid 100% efforts from every boy.

What's in store for the future? Well, a lot more strategy, if it keeps on working as it did this year.

Last Will and Testament

I, Linda French, leave the key to room 12 to Claudia Neiber to use "over the Rainbow."

I, Tom Frounfelter, will to any athelete in need of my crutches.

I, Margaret Godley, will to Mrs. Sullivan all my Godly possessions.

I, Doug Guido, will my paint soaked sweater, shirt and pants to any other fool who wants to paint his name on water towers.

I, Kathy Haley, leave my ponytail to Bobby Bird in hope that she gets it pulled by the janitor.

I, Pat Hall, hereby will to Nelson Hyatt a key to the barns at the race track so he can stay anytime he runs away, again.

I, Prudence Hartt, being in full possession of all my mental capacities (for once) do hereby will my pink bikini to my sister, Merrie.

I, Gerry Hazelton, will my ability to always get into trouble for talking in Mrs. Osborn's class to Claudia Ricketts.

I, Daley Hill forfit my monogram beer mug and opener which has been handed down from B. Dingwall to B. Tuck to me, to any junior who thinks he can handle it, if not it will go to Skip French who can.

I, Chris Holman, being of sound body and mind do bequeath to next year's Valdictorian the spelling ability of K. Luedkte, the desire to study of D. Dingwall, the popularity of Mr. Everything, the cunning of P. Walters and "old Chuck's" eyes.

I, Sue Houck, will my Gov't. note cards to the new seniors.

I, Ron Jones, will the window next to the gym door to anyone who wishes to take a short cut.

I, Steve Jordon, will the school.

I, Steve Kehrer will to the one and only half-wit, Don Sasse, my ability to be quiet when things look bad for myself. I hope his friend, Randy Simpson, will help him.

I, Roger Kline, will 3 of my 6 points to Jerry Asher for causing the fumble that I recovered for a touchdown against Plymouth.

I, Beckey Kuick, will all of my thrilling Spanish classes to Ralph Robinson.

I, Don Kushmaul, will the countless "senior priviledges" to the deserving juniors.

I, May Lou Langtry, will my ability to read faster that I can type to anyone who types faster than he reads. "Good Luck".

I, Kathy Lister, will my problems to Stacey Evans.

I, Jim Long, will my you know what to Ron Gloetzner and Greg Carr, may they use it wisely.

I, Kerry Luedke, will my ability to make out weekend night schedules concerning wine, women, and song to Dudleys little brother, Mike Walter.

I, Kevin McClain, will to Larry Biddle, all the extra pounds that I have gained in my senior year, may he put them to good use in football.

I, Kathy McNeice will my bottle of red hair tint to Shar Ruland.

I, Pat Moase, will my Q cards to Hope Hahn, may she put them to very good use.

And the race is on!

Our sponsors—Mr. Townsley and Mr. Valentine.

It seems the guys out number the girls.

Our Mexican amigo
Pablo Chauvet.

Spirit of "67"

Enterprising, original, enthusiastic! All three adjectives can readily describe this year's Senior Class. Under the reins of Steve Jordan, Glenn Deibert, Cindy Haynes and Mark Hesse, the class plunged into several big projects.

Rumor had it that the Seniors were approached by a representative from J.L. Hudson's begging the class to sell Hudson's their float for the Thanksgiving Parade in Detroit. The chairman did not commit the class but said we might consider it "for a price". Work began at Northville Downs early in October for the "spectacular Senior effort" in the Homecoming Contest. Luckily, all our efforts paid off.

A new hot spot around town during the first semester was the Senior Lounge. The memories of Homecoming "67" and our lovely queen, Pat Moase, and our representatives, Linda Allen and Barb Bogart, along with all the other festivities of that weekend, will linger in our minds for years to come.

The Seniors who attended this year's Junior Prom congratulated the Juniors for putting on such a fine gala event. It's amazing what can be done with $50 nowadays.

There was a rumor circulating around the senior hang-outs that our ivy-covered Senior Lounge would be converted into an aquarium the second semester by the office. Sure enough, this came true.

Senior year, with all its pitfalls had triumphs, certainly proved to be a rewarding experience, no matter how you looked at it.

Northville High may never be the same.

By the way, whatever happened to Judas Maccabees and Franz Regenholtz?

I, Mike Moody, being of sound and body and mind, will to Nelson Hyatt, my ability to be "rougher than a . . ."

I, Jan Moorhead, won't.

I, Melissa O'Toole, will all my old tardy slips to any underclassman who can use them.

I, Tom Peterson, being of sound mind and body will a T.V. to Nelson Hyatt, and to Chuck Frogner my skis for use as shoe trees.

I, Donna Petteys do hereby will to Marsha Gruesback the locker (number 169) that I was bequeathed last year.

I, Enid Penn, being of sound mind and body do solemnly bequeath to the 4 partners a drunk angel, and to Randy Marburger, my exciting color red.

I, Marilyn Pubanz, will all my M and M's to Mole.

I, Sally Rhodes will "little Joey" to the next Journalist who undertakes the Thanksgiving Feature.

I, Val Richmond, hereby bequeath to Bob Wood, my friendship with Donna Petteys.

I, Mike Sisse, will to Mike McGuire the and the back seat of my car.

I, Cyndi Smith, will to Gregg Carr, the power for one year to refrain from glancing or thinking to a Ralph, Lewie or Melving when any feminine pulchitude walks by and to Jan Brown, my petie, daisy designed lab apron.

I, Connie Spangler, will the class of "68" that cackling laugh of mine.

I, Linda Steenchen, will to Mole all the gum I never had.

I, Joyce Stuckey, will my superb vibrato to Bill Skelly.

I, Joel Symmes, will all my friends to Hemitad Grodie.

I, Doug Swiss, will to Chuck Frogner one can of Glad air freshener, so he can use it during basketball practice.

I, Lynn Tiilikka, will all the paints, paper and magic markers in the Pep Club box to my sister, Peg, along with all the pep it takes to go with it.

I, Colleen Thomas, being of sound mind do will to Claudia Neiber the class of the previous years.

I, Penny Thomas, will my satasm to Jane Tyler.

I, Karen Tucker, do hereby bequeath to Jan Brown a gold-plated statue of Rumpelstiltskin.

I, Donna Tymensky, will to Kim Kozak all of my stuffed animals and especially my orange and black mustang.

I, Patti Wachtel, will Chuck Totten my striking ability to back into parked cars and also the nickmane from my car to his . . . "squishey."

I, Pat (Dudley) Walter, being of sober mind and body do hereby will my expandable stomach to Skip French.

I, Susan Wisner, will my ability to make pin on signs at the last minute to my sister, Ellen.

I, Robin White, will Bev Adema to all the girls that are going steady.

I, Cher Whitzke, will my box of Trix to the rabbit on T.V. and my long hair to anyone who wants it.

I, Doug Dingwall, will my ability to consume great quantities of liquid refreshments to Joe Andrews.

Poly-Flec SEAMLESS FLOORING

AS BRIGHT, DURABLE AND READY for TOMORROW
AS THE CLASS OF

Co - Polymer Chemicals, Inc.

Poly-Flee Seamless Flooring has stood up to our dances of the 60's. No waxing, no wear — remains as bright and durable as the class of '67... and into the seventies when careers are established—lawyer, chemist, homemaker, teacher, barber, doctor, whatever your choice, this Poly-Flee Seamless Floor will still be finished and ready—without any waxing—for those annual reunions of class members.

Co-Polymer Chemicals, Inc. Producers of poured Poly-Flee Seamless Flooring, join with the class of '67 in looking to a bright and Prosperous Future.
